Dear Rose,

Received a bundle of back-mail yesterday, thirty letters and cards, in all. Your Dec. 4th letter was one of them. Only two months and ten days. Also received the card and money order. Thank you. - The letters that came, in that bunch, from Alice, included the news of Christmas, which is the first I've had, with details. I was happy to hear my arrangements, for Christmas worked out as well as I could expect. - Time is short, and I have several letters to write, so, for the present, I will close, with love to the family, and hoping this finds you all, okay, I remain,

Your G.I. brother-in-law,

Johnny

P.S. We received no pictures yet, but I still have hopes, I
