2. ENEMY OPERATIONS DURING PERIOD:

- General summary - Enemy continued defensive action in the III Corps sector with a decreasing amount of resistance encountered in the sectors of the 6th Armd Div and 90th Inf Div.
- Operations of component elements:
 - Armor - 6th Armd Div reports one tank at P629635, one tank at P624644 and three tanks at P624635. These tanks were placed to support the defense with direct fire.
 - Artillery - A decreasing amount of artillery fire was reported by the units of III Corps. Direct SP fire was reported during the period from vicinity P636610.
 - Infantry - Continued to delay on III Corps front from prepared positions as indicated with a somewhat decreasing amount of small arms, MG and mortar fire.

3. MISCELLANEOUS:

- 12 enemy dead buried.
- Prisoners - 157 PWs were cleared thru 6th Armd PW cage by the 320th Inf. Total PWs for this operation 1,018. Grand total 12,352.
- Weather - Cloudy tonight and during the day tomorrow with occasional light snow early tomorrow morning. Little change in temperature.
- Miscellaneous - XIII Corps reports that an evacuation hospital admitted an injured PW who had been evacuated thru normal medical channels, who had a live German hand grenade in his pocket. Search wounded PWs.

(Source: First US Army G-2 Estimate No. 61) From the incomplete reports of unit papers captured by the enemy in the ARDENNE break-thru, the enemy is capable of preparing fraudulent documents and of infiltrating well-schooled and well informed agents throughout our forces. The probability of his exercising this capability is viewed as very high.

Special E.E.I. - The size, caliber, charge, range, launching and propelling mechanism, and location of launching sites of the long range projectile which has been shelling LUXEMBOURG.

- b. Operations of component elements:
 1. Armor - See General Summary above.
 2. Artillery - In addition to the extremely heavy artillery preparation, which preceded the counter-attacks on the N, sporadic artillery was reported vicinity SAARLAUTERN Q2981.
 3. Aviation - One unidentified aircraft was fired upon in the N sector.
 4. Infantry - See General Summary above.

3. MISCELLANEOUS:

- a. Weather - Cloudy tonight and tomorrow with possible scattered snow early tonight or tomorrow morning.
- b. Password - PERP reply HOLE from 231200 to 241200 January 1945.

4. ENEMY CAPABILITIES:

Corps lists enemy capabilities in the sector as follows:

- a. The enemy can:
 1. Attack from the N through the SAAR-MOSELLE Triangle or astride the MOSELLE with a force of indeterminate strength.
 2. Attack from the N across the MOSELLE toward the city of LUXEMBOURG P8312 and against the flank of Third Army units attacking the ARDENNES Salient, with a secondary attack S against XX Corps as protection for his S flank.
 3. Attack with a force of indeterminate strength from the FORPACH Q3965 bridgehead over the SAAR. Such an attack, while originating in the zone of XXI Corps might well be directed against METZ and XX Corps.
 4. Make a pincers attack combining (1) and (3) above.
 5. Continue his defense along the present line of contact.
 6. Attack with limited forces to drive us back across the SAAR and destroy our bridgehead. This could be coupled with (5) above as part of an active defense.
 7. Withdraw a large portion of the tanks from the ARDENNES Salient into reserve behind the SIEGFRIED Line to be recommitted in another sector, possibly against XX Corps. These might be used with ordinary infantry divisions which could be motorized for the purpose.
