A pipeline leak caused by SA fire was reported SE of KIRKEL (Q6376).

Two U. S. guards vicinity (L895929) were fired on by machine pistol. Persons firing were not located. Three other instances of U. S. personnel being fired on were reported but guilty parties were not apprehended.

number of prohibited items in the following towns:

WEBERHEIM (Q6671)
 HECHTSHEIM (M3951)
 HOLZWEILER (Q3280)
 DIEFFLEN (Q2986)
 LEBACH (Q4090)
 SCHWARZENHOLZ (Q3682)

Two German civilians have been arrested for possession of rifles and ammunition hidden in their homes.

Twenty rifles were turned over to an American patrol by the burgo-master of HOHGRENZHAUSEN.

Five Germans observed alongside of road at (L6810) ran for nearby woods on approach of U. S. soldiers in a jeep. Two of the Germans were apprehended. Neither man had proper identification and one had a shotgun of German manufacture, fully loaded.

A German civilian attempted to sell a P-38 pistol to a soldier of the 35th Division. The soldier reported the attempted sale to the CIC and 3 German civilians were arrested, involved in the illegal possession and attempted sale of a firearm.

Ammunition and explosives are still being found in varying quantities throughout the XXIII Corps Area.

d. Unauthorized Travelers.

A traffic check at two points in SAARLAND showed a total traffic count of 2690; of this number only 28 were found to be traveling without proper authorization.

e. War Crimes.

Mathias ZAHNEM, a German national, has confessed to the shooting of an American aviator on 15 Aug 1944. His confession is confirmed by 5 other Germans who were present at time of shooting.

Peter BACK, alleged ringleader of a group of Germans who murdered an American flyer, is now in custody of Military Government awaiting trial. An unidentified German girl, who knew suspect and heard he was "wanted" because of a radio broadcast, reported this information to authorities which led to the arrest.

f. Important Arrests.

SS Obersturmbannfuehrer Fuehrer Karl BURKHARDT, former CO of Buchenwald concentration camp was found disguised as a Wehrmacht private in hospital of PWTE at BAD KREUZNACH (M1038). In custody at TIC.

SS Obersturmfuehrer Doctor Karl HOVIEB, resident physician of Buchenwald was also found at BAD KREUZNACH PWTE. He was posing as an inmate of the concentration camp. In custody at TIC.

g. Loot.

Fifty crates of items reported to be from a French Museum were found at (16436) near LAUFELD.

h. Miscellaneous.

In Kreis PIRMASSENS, 52 German ration cans were uncovered bearing the "36" stamp, presumed to contain sabotage materials. They were found to contain meat.

i. Summary of Conditions in Occupied Germany.

Illegal Allied requisitioning continues to be a cause for resentment, but no demonstrations or serious disturbances are reported. One area reports that the housing problem is a "sore spot" in the requisitioning policy due to overcrowding caused by Allied bombing.

There are very evident attempts of Germans to curry favor with U. S. troops.

Reports continue to indicate the Germans have an almost inborn respect for their Wehrmacht old-time leaders. Some Germans now say that had the conduct of the war been left to the regular generals the war would have been over long ago. The influx of Nazi Party sponsored generals had subordinated the regular generals to a point where their sound influence could no longer steer the course of the war.

In general the German attitude towards their future is one of pessimism. Some consider the war as the most exhausting experience in German History and that the nation was bled white. Others hope that Germany may yet soon recover the confidence of the world and be helped back on its feet.

Returning German ex-soldiers tell of the good manner in which they were treated in the Russian Area, how the food there seemed to be plentiful and the average German civilian well taken care of. People are spreading these reports by word of mouth and much of what they say is heard over the radio. It has been noted that the soldiers returning from the Russian Area seem to be persons of more than average intelligence, such as professional soldiers, lawyers, etc. Their stories seem to have great effect upon the people, especially so now because of the low caloric value of rationed food in this area.

G-2 PERIODIC REPORT SUMMARY1. COUNTERINTELLIGENCE.a. General Summary.

Other than two (2) cases of decapitation wires strung across roads, only petty incidents of sabotage were reported during the period.

Wire cutting continued throughout the Corps Area in widely scattered localities. Security raids conducted during the period yielded moderate supplies of arms, ammunition, and miscellaneous items of German equipment. Reports of political activity and some agitation, apparently French inspired, towards acquisition of the SAARLAND region by France were received.

b. Sabotage.

At NEUHAUS (L1631) on 18 June a decapitation cable 1/8 inches in diameter was strung across the road three (3) feet above the ground. Near PRUM (L0779) on 21 June a non-insulated copper wire was stretched across the road. The wire was broken by the windshield of a jeep.

c. Incidents.

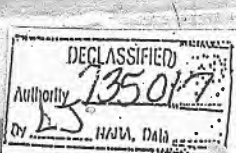

(1) Damage to wire lines was reported as follows: Telephone wire east of WESTHOVEN (M3723) was cut by sharp instrument on 11 June; a German national was apprehended near the international boundary at SCHNEE EIFEL in possession of 60 feet of American telephone wire; west of KOBLENZ and at (F4712) 40 feet of a telephone line was removed on 14 June; telephone wire south of BAUMHOLDER (L7113) cut with sharp instrument and 75 yards removed on 22 June; northeast of BIRKENFELD (L5916) a wire was cut, and after cutting, the line was pulled together and covered with mud.

(2) Two (2) French soldiers, reported posing as American border patrol soldiers, robbed a home and attempted rape south of ZTEIBRUCKEN (Q7372) on 13 June.

(3) At the DP camp at LANDSTUHL (Q8890), Poles digging a garbage pit, uncovered a cache of SA and ammunition containing 52 rifles, 19 bayonets, 3000 rounds ammunition, 2 Luger pistols, 2 Very pistols, 20 flares and 4 Burp guns.

(4) At HERDORF (G1542) on 15 June a motion picture theater was found operating and was stopped.

(5) Belgian guards in the TRIER Sub-Area were sent to investigate suspicious persons north of WITTLICH (L3954) on 21 June. The guards were fired on from ambush by a group of 4 or 5 persons with pistols. All individuals concerned escaped.

d. Security Raids.

Nine (9) security raids were conducted in the SAARLAND-PFALZ-HESSEN Sub-Area. At NEUNKIRCHEN (Q5983) and REISWEILER (Q3885) 14 German gas masks and numerous items of German uniforms and equipment were uncovered. Raids were also conducted at the following places and small amounts of arms and ammunition and miscellaneous German equipment were uncovered: DONSIEDERS (Q9374), TALSCHIED (Q3887), FRETTEHEIM (M3629), OSTHOPEN (M4223), ERBES BUDESHEIM (M2128), FREIER-SHEIM (M2523), HESSLOCK (M3727) and DITTELSHEIM (M3527).

e. Political Activity.

From the SAARLAND reports were received concerning French inspired movements for the annexation of this territory to France. Prior to the occupation of the area by U.S. forces, propaganda leaflets were distributed in the SAARLAUTERN city area agitating for separation and annexation to France. Recently a clandestinely-printed newspaper, the Saarlouiser Journal, appeared advocating liberation of the SAARLAND and unification with the French Republic.

Reports were also received of secret meetings being held.

f. Summary of Conditions in Occupied Germany.

The KOBLENZ area reports that the German people are worried that Allied requisitioning will cause insufficiency of food for the population during the winter months, and that many released German PW's were not returning to work either in the cities or on the farms because there is no supervising agency that requires PW's to go to work.

The SAARLAND area reports that the arrests of party officers of the Ortsgruppen level, officials of the SA, SS, and members of the Gestapo and SD, within the automatic arrest category, has had a marked effect on the population. It has liquidated a segment of public opinion which held the American occupation to be lenient and diffident in its treatment of political personages.

The Germans are asking for more newspapers and literature to bring them up to date on current events. The Allied sponsored Frankfurter Press is well thought of, but a greater distribution is desired to satisfy all. German civilians also wonder how long it will be before theaters will be opened for civilians.

g. Miscellaneous.

The following report of interest was received regarding the treatment of a German PW who spent six (6) days in a Russian camp: When he left the camp he was given three (3) loaves of bread, 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ lbs of sausage, and a bottle of vodka. After he was met by the American forces, he was relieved of all of his stores and kept for three (3) weeks in a swampy camp and then released with no parting gifts.

CONFIDENTIALANNEX NO. 1ABWEHRBEAUFTRAGTE - INDUSTRIAL SECURITY OFFICERS

Abwehrbeauftragte, security officers of industrial installations under the Nazi regime, are not, as such, included in the automatic arrest category. It may be found, however, in individual cases, that such persons were placed in plants and factories by the Abwehr or the Sipo and SD.

Abwehrbeauftragte should be arrested as individual security suspects if investigation indicates that they are a danger to Allied security. (Source: Ltr 12th A Gp, 21 May 45)

FALSE, FORGED, AND MISSING IDENTITY DOCUMENTS

1. Issue of Kennkarte to Werewolf Members - Following are pertinent details prepared by the 82d CIC Det relative to the identification of Werewolf members:

a. Many members of the Werewolf were issued the KENNKARTE in place of the WEH RPASS. The KENNKARTE is issued to all German women, and to all German men who are either over the draft age or obviously unfit for military service. It serves merely as an identification card.

b. The KENNKARTE is a folded sheet of grey linen paper, containing the following three 4" by 6" printed pages:

(1) Cover - "DEUTSCHES REICH" on top, the Nazi eagle clutching the swastika in the center of the page, and "KENNKARTE" on the bottom.

d. Now look for three police precinct stamps on the last page. One stamp should be covering the upper right corner of the photo, another the lower left of the photo, and a third to the left of the signature of the issuing authority. No KENNKARTE is valid if the police precinct stamp number does not correspond with the number of the precinct where the bearer was residing at the time the card was issued. All Germans know their precinct number, just as you do your ASN, but they seem to have pulled precinct numbers out of a hat for these forged KENNKARTEN.

e. Ask your subject questions similar to the following:

(1) When was your KENNKARTE issued? (KENNKARTEN for the Werewolf were all back-dated one to two years, showing either 1943 or 1944 as the date of issue.)

(2) Where were you living at that time?

(3) What was the number of your police precinct? (a cursory check on the correct number may be made by ordering your local police agency to give you a list showing police precincts in that area, along with each precinct's pre-occupational number. Keep that record on hand, and refer to it whenever a suspect presents a KENNKARTE to you.)

f. Members of the Werewolf organization were issued these KENNKARTEN in a hurry and in all but a few cases, one or both of the above points has been overlooked when accuracy was sacrificed for speed. (Source: G-2 Periodic Report, V Corps, 16 May 1945)

2. Gestapo False Identity Cards.

Interrogation of SERGIUS GERRHARD by Third Army revealed that on 18 April 1945, Gestapo men of REGENSBURG (U1855) were issued KENTKARTEN by the police adjutant, STADLER. GERRHARD carried a false identity card which was new and had a new photograph. It was dated 4 October 1944 at REGENSBURG, and bore serial number D-60131. The suspect thought that 150 such spurious identity cards had been issued with numbers above and below his. These cards are all dated 1944, generally about one week apart. (Source: G-2 Periodic Report, V Corps, 16 May 1945)

3. SD FALSE DOCUMENTS

A Military Government detachment recently received information from reliable informants that the SD has left in various places, picked men, for espionage and sabotage. These men were all given papers showing them to have been dismissed from the Party for political "Unreliability". (Source: Ltr Det F3G2, 2d ECA, Wil Govt, 4 May 45)

4. Some Clues in Forged Identity Documents

Examination of the Wehrpass and other identity papers of a recently captured espionage agent of the SS JAGDVERPÄNDDE NW showed that this agent had been provided with forgeries made out to an alias. While the Wehrpass appeared to be a good document at a hasty glance, closer observation revealed a number of discrepancies which could easily be noticed by any person who is completely familiar with a normal Wehrpass.

While a complete analysis of the apparent falsifications is not included here, some of the more glaring mistakes are outlined below:

a. The stamp of the issuing agency was that of a replacement unit, while actually a Wehrpass is always issued by the WRK (Wehrbezirkskommando). In addition, the issuing officer failed to give his official position following his rank designation.

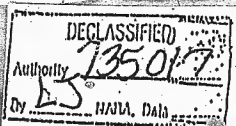

b. Under the heading "Musterung" no entry is made in the space for the date and place of the Musterung. This entry appears on page 5. On the same page, the military classification (tauglichkeitsgrad) is given as "taurlich" a word which is never used in official German military language as a classification.

c. Other obvious mistakes were noticed in entries which should normally be made by different agencies at different times. These were found to be in the same handwriting and with identical ink. A number of entries which should have been old were made with ink which was obviously very recent.

d. Other accompanying documents showed themselves to be made out in the same handwriting and ink as parts of the Wehrpass, and in one instance, even the same official stamp was used. The above is by no means a complete or detailed enumeration of discrepancies, but points out only the most glaring faults. Extreme care should be exercised by all personnel in examination of the documents of suspicious persons. One of the best ways to examine documents is to have correct and authentic samples of the various standard German documents at hand for comparison. Recent reports indicate that a large number of Germans will be provided with forged documents in order to escape detection or to be able to carry on underground activities. While some of these may be perfect forgeries, others may have obvious mistakes which can be discovered on close examination. (Source: Third Army, G-2 Info Bulletin No. 63, 15 May 45)
