For heroic achievement in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States in FRANCE. On 1 August 1944 during an air attack near AVARANCHES, FRANCE, Private GOLDBERG fearlessly exposed himself to hostile bombing and strafing and went to the aid of two wounded men. With utter disregard for his own safety he treated the wounds of the injured men and evacuated them to a field hospital. He then returned to his unit to render any assistance that may have been necessary, driving over roads that were under constant enemy attack. Private GOLDBERG'S heroic actions and unflinching devotion to duty reflect great credit upon himself and the military service.
