

TACTICAL INTERROGATION REPORT
IPW TEAM 6C-B, 134TH INFANTRY

24 Sept 44

PW is a Luxemburger who was forced into the German army in 1943. After being wounded in Italy, he returned to Germany and shortly after the beginning of our invasion, he was put into a new combat group, "Kampfgruppe 13", which had a strength of 40 men. The armament consisted of 4 50mm AT guns and 2 75mm SP guns.

Two days ago this unit was shelled and dive-bombed by us and lost most of its guns and men. The remaining men blew up the two AT guns and then dispersed in all directions. According to the PW this combat group has ceased to exist. This happened near Beix, in vic Ecuelle.

When this "Kampfgruppe 13" was formed in Germany it had as original purpose the mission of combatting French resistance forces, but it was never used in this.
